CHARLES H. TUTTLE
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY

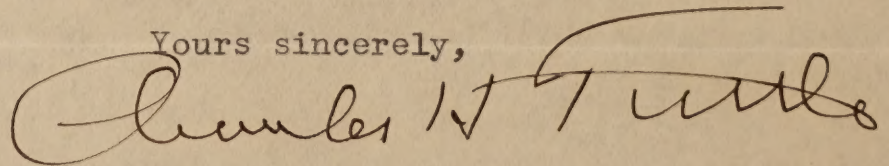

September 27, 1929.

Rev. Stewart M. Robinson,
Second Presbyterian Church,
East Jersey Street,
Elizabeth, N.J.

My dear Dr. Robinson:-

I have your kind letter of the twenty-sixth. I have just looked over my engagement book and I find that I am crowded with evening commitments in a way which simply appals me as I look at it. I do not see how ever, with the pressure of official work, I can meet all these engagements. I hesitate about taking on any more, particularly ones which require me to go out of town. I think you will understand. Perhaps later I will be under less pressure; but I know I am beyond my physical strength now.

Yours sincerely,
